The E-MOBILITY STORES AG provides expertise and accessories for electric mobility. And took over gradually the "e-driver.net" activities of the association, which was founded by Tesla drivers as an information platform in October, 2013. Due to the large demand for charging and other accessories the internet shop was established and was converted into a corporation (E-Mobility AG Stores) due to its high growth. The free, complimentary knowledge base of the platform will be maintained and expanded further.

The E-Mobility AG Stores is registered for tax, value added tax and customs technically both in Switzerland and in the EU (Germany). The input tax are therefore deductible. They shipped their goods duty and tax depending on the country from stock Switzerland (EFTA countries) or from stock Germany (EU countries). Tax-exempt intra-Community supplies (for EU companies with a valid VAT registration) are available in ex-stock Germany. All other countries in the world are served as a tax-exempt export delivery from our warehouse, which can offer lower shipping costs.

Please note that we have no retail stores neither at our headquarters nor at our warehouse. Therefore neither customer visits nor pickup are possible there.

Background information

e-driver.net was originally founded as an association under Swiss law. Founders were early Tesla model S-drivers who wanted to make products proven in everyday use available to similar minded Tesla drivers. The Page was first published on 11.10.13 and is constantly being expanded since.

Due to the enormous growth of the platform and the high demand for the offered products the newly established E-Mobility AG Stores took gradually over the operation and transactions of e-driver.net from 10.6.14. For our customers, this has no effect. Our products and services remain to serve the needs of EV-drivers.

As part of this development, we are working hard to make our shop in different languages, different currencies and country specific VAT-inclusive prices available as soon as possible. Unfortunately this is not technically possible with the software currently in use. Thank you for your understanding.
